In grateful appreciation for his services as a Doctor in this town since Dec. 4th., 1904. He has truly been a "Country Doctor," never refusing to go out in all kinds of weather. As a citizen of the town he has maintained a keen interest in community affairs.

He graduated from Laval University, Montreal, Canada and first went to Harrisville, N. H. where he stayed only three months.

Now we say "thank you" for his kindness and good care he has given.

Pine Grove Cemetery Memorial Trust Fund

A Memorial Trust Fund has been established for general improvement of Pine Grove Cemetery. The interest earned from this Trust Fund will be used for such things as, maintenance of fences, care of roads in the cemetery and many little things that could be done from time to time to improve the appearance of the cemetery.

Many cemeteries are fortunate enough to have an endowment of a large Trust Fund for these things. We not being fortunate in that respect have established this Memorial Trust Fund, hoping people will be interested in seeing it grow from year to year, to eventually becoming a very worth while fund.

Some people have suggested they would like to give a little each year, or from time to time, perhaps in memory of a birthday or some other special day. Amounts from one dollar to one hundred dollars have been given so far. We will be pleased to accept any amount of money at any time toward the fund.

It has been suggested that the names of the donor and in whose memory the money is given be printed each year in this report.

The Trustees of Trust Funds will be pleased to accept your remittance or discuss the Trust Fund further with you.

RAY L. FLETCHER,

LOUIS N. STEARNS,

HORTENSE C. WILLIAMS, Trustees.

Juvenile fiction	5,661
Juvenile non-fiction	3,608

Volumes purchased	300

We are pleased to report that the circulation shows some increase over last year and that the non-fiction, both adult and juvenile, shows a marked rise. This is caused, to some extent, by the increased use of the library by the schools. This lowers the percent of fiction from 70% to 66%.

Each year the library is used more by the schools and the children of today are reading better and more mature books than were read by those of the same age twenty or more years ago. The library is not used much for a reading room but the students use it for a study hall and our reference books show the effect of this daily usage.

Books, binding, magazines and in fact everything needed in the library have increased in price. The Amidon Fund at one time, purchased all books and magazines used by the schools but it is no longer adequate and town funds have to supplement it, leaving less money for other needs.

The State Library Bookmobile continues to call every eight weeks and we borrow many books which our readers enjoy.

The librarian attended the spring meeting of the Connecticut Valley Library Association at Northfield, Mass. She also attended a three weeks course in Elementary Library Techniques held at the University of New Hampshire. On October 14th the librarian and her trustees entertained the neighboring librarians and trustees at an afternoon meeting. Miss Marjorie Stroud of the State Library in Concord was the guest speaker. A film strip was shown and there was a large display of new books brought by Miss Stroud. The librarian attended the New England Library Association's convention at Swampscott, Mass. in October.

The library is in good condition and with the addition of new books, will continue to be better than the average library in a town of this size.

The librarian wishes to thank her trustees for their help and cooperation during the past year. She also wishes to thank the readers, especially the girls and boys, for being so cooperative in returning their books on time and for their courteous behavior while in the library.

Respectfully submitted,

SYLVIA E. FLETCHER,
Librarian.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE

---

The following is my report for the period between January 1, 1957 and December 31, 1957.

No. of cases were:	613
Non-communicable	556
Communicable	57
Of these were:
Infant	15
Preschool	31
School	460
Adult	107
Crippled Children	21
Tuberculosis to Clinics	20
Prenatal	4
Postnatal	3
Newborn	3
The total No. of field visits were:	1,340
Office Visits	63
Cases Admitted	370
Cases Discharged	336

On January 11th the first Polio Vaccine Clinic of the year was held. Four more clinics were held, plus two make-up clinics, during the year. One of these on March 27th was the first clinic, which the third or booster polio shots were given. Of the 455 children given that day, 395 received their booster shot.

April 10th was the first of three Toxoid Clinics held. There were; 32 school children, 29 preschool children and 12 infants who received the toxoid shots, 31 children also received vaccinations. The June clinic was a combined Polio and Toxoid Clinic. By the close of this year, there have been 578 children, who have received their third or booster polio shots. 38 others have received one or two shots. Dr. John J. Doyle was attending physician at these clinics.

On Feb. 4th the first Red Cross Blood Bank, ever to be held in Hinsdale, was held in the Congregational Church with 48 successful donors. Because blood was badly needed and the Red Cross wanted to have another Blood Bank, another was held in July, with a poor showing of only 12 donors. Dr. Thomas O'Connor and Dr. John J. Doyle were attending physicians. Donors were included from Winchester, as well as Hinsdale.

During the year 7 Crippled Childrens Clinics were attended, and 4 Tuberculosis Clinics. Also two tumor Clinics were attended. All of these were held at the Elliot Community Hospital.

During a two week vacation in June, a class in "Child Growth and Development" was attended at Keene Teachers College. In October a three day institute in "Disaster Nursing" was attended at the University of Massachusetts.

As usual during the summer the children had inspections at the playground.

My report of school activities follows.

There were 175 days when school children received attention. The number of times that children were seen, were, 4,122 at school and 93 visits at home.

The following cases were:

Pediculosis	39
Infectious Mononucleosis	3
Impetigo	1
Poison Ivy	6
Flu	10
First Aid	68
To Tuberculosis Clinics	14
To Orthopedic Clinics	18
To Child Guidance Clinics	1

Regular Inspections were made for pediculosis. In January the remainder of the school children were given their annual physical examinations. 117 were examined. Hearing tests were given 56 children, 12 having some defects.

Patch tests were given for tuberculosis to 320 pupils and teachers.

Vision tests were given to 243 and 36 showed some defect in their vision.

The annual physical examinations were given in the fall by Dr. Edmond LaChaine. There were 513 examined. The following defects were found.

Tecth needing attention	142
Nutrition, an increase over last year	32
Orthopedic	1
Enlarged tonsils, many had been out with colds or flu	113

The school nurses meeting for this district was attended in Walpole in December. This was a discussion of the mentally handicapped child.

I again wish to thank everyone for the help and co-operation, given during the year. Without this help, many of the clinics, etc. would not have been possible.

Respectfully submitted,

GRAIS E. CHURCHILL, R.N.

REPORT OF THE HINSDALE PLANNING BOARD

---

Acting on the decision of the voters at the annual town meeting in March, 1957, to organize the Planning Board according to New Hampshire statutes, the Selectmen appointed seven members for terms as follows:

Bernard P. Pelech	Member from Board of Selectmen
William S. Howe, Jr.	1 year
William E. King, Sr.	2 years
Clifford D. Stearns	3 years
Russell E. O'Neal	4 years
Jackson Tupper	5 years
Russell M. Garfield	5 years

At its first meeting on June 26, 1957 the Planning Board elected Clifford Stearns and Russell Garfield as its Chairman and Secretary respectively for one-year terms.

The Board has met regularly in the Fire Station on the second Tuesday of each month and for special meetings and hearings as necessary.

The members of the Board of Selectmen were invited to attend the August meeting at which a number of suggestions to improve the appearance of the town and reduce operating costs were discussed. These included (1) the repair and replacement of fences and removal of grass, weeds and trash from town streets, (2) the repair of damage to Canal St. sidewalk, (3) the regulation of cars parked on Spring and High Streets and Brattleboro Road near the High School, (4) the purchase of fuel oil for town buildings and schools on basis of competitive bids, and (5) the drafting of a zoning ordinance and building code.

The Board recommended to the New Hampshire State Forestry and Recreation Commission that the State retain its land on Wantastiquet Mountain as a public scenic and recreational area rather than sell it to private interests.

The Board engaged Attorney Homer Bradley to draft a zoning ordinance for Hinsdale. This has been prepared and discussed with Hinsdale residents at three public hearings in January and February. An article proposing its adoption has been placed in the warrant for consideration by the voters.

The members of the Planning Board wish to thank the Selectmen and other officials of the town for their cooperation and urge all Hinsdale residents to submit suggestions for the improvement of the town and its affairs.

Respectfully submitted,

RUSSELL M. GARFIELD,

Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL

1957

To the Superintendent of Schools:

I herewith submit my fifth annual report as principal of the Hinsdale Schools.

With the completion of the addition at the elementary school, all primary grades were moved to their new quarters in February. Grades one through three, in two divisions each, now fill the six classrooms. The all purpose room serves many purposes, both educationally and for the community. All classes find it possible to unite both divisions most conveniently in this area when the need arises. Music, visual-aid use, dramatics, assemblies, debating and exhibitions are but a few of the several different uses to which this area is put.

Moving grades seven and eight to the upper floor of the original elementary building assembles our entire elementary program in a single and separate unit. One classroom is vacant this year. However, with the opening of school in September of 1958 all classrooms will be in use giving us two divisions in every grade, one through eight.

As has been stated in past reports, a particular problem within the elementary area has been studied each year by the staff as a whole. The improvement of reading was undertaken during the past school year. Several faculty meetings were devoted exclusively to their undertaking culminating with a visit by Dr. Joseph Comerford, an authority in this field. There is still much to be done but the results show a decided upswing in the improvement within this area. Not all the questions have been answered however, but with the continued cooperative attitude existing fewer problem cases should remain.

With the opening of school for this year the problem undertaken has been the evaluation of our Math and Science program.

This study is still going on and will continue throughout the year for the purpose of determining what steps are necessary to strengthen this area. Because of the importance now being given to these two subjects it has been my purpose, through approved supervisory techniques, group meetings, individual teacher conferences and prepared teacher aides, to improve any existing weak spots noted. As you know, reports have been made to you and to the school board of such an area and the steps being taken to bring about the needed improvement. The problem of obtaining fully qualified personnel is becoming most difficult, but I would, at this time, reemphasize the importance of teachers teaching within their major academic area for best results.

Our new teachers are fitting into the Hinsdale system most satisfactorily. It is gratifying indeed to note that through the efforts of your office and our school board, such a generally competent staff of teachers is now working with our pupils.

The high school area has improved considerably over the past two years. We were unfortunate in losing some excellent teachers to other schools but most fortunate indeed to obtain the very efficient replacements now employed. A severe situation existed with the lack of a math and science teacher early in the year. However, we now have a fully qualified man in this area and are grateful indeed to be fully staffed.

With the enrollment rising in the high school area a serious problem of space and efficiency will soon confront the people of Hinsdale. At this time we have not as yet been visited by the evaluating team of our State Department of Education. We expect their visit shortly because of the rapidity with which the evaluating of all schools in the state has been progressing. In view of the comments and criticisms given such secondary schools as Laconia I believe we can expect something of a similar nature here. The new minimum standards to be met, if accreditation is desired, by the fall of 1958, leaves little alternative in the development of a broader program of education or grades nine through twelve. At the moment I believe our college preparatory program will meet these minimum standards. We offer four years of English, four years of mathematics, four years of science, two years of a foreign language and four years of social studies with electives in the fine arts. As stated by the State Department, the small high school will be hard pressed to offer a broad comprehensive program for all, satisfactorily meeting the requirements for accreditation and for state aid. I would unhesitatingly advocate a serious study to be made of the entire secondary school problem in light of existing requirements and most certainly explore every possible solution. The cooperative high school is seriously being considered in many areas, in others it has already been adopted. Most certainly such a school could afford a program of education for secondary school pupils above that stated by our State Department of Education as the basic minimum. A local high school could also serve such needs as are required, however, the cost in supplying services equal to those of a larger system, would be considerable. I do believe our present secondary school has served the pupils of Hinsdale well indeed. Our percentage of graduates going on to further educational endeavor these past three years has been above the average. I regret reporting that in some individual cases a change of interest did occur however resulting in a few of our graduates leaving college. All who remain are doing satisfactorily. It is only fair to point out that the increasing load on the colleges will be felt in the application for admission by our own students. We would be remiss in our work if we did not associate the ever-increasing demand for further education with the requirements for improved training and broader educational programs being advocated by the Colleges as well as by the State.

The problem that appears most imminent is in satisfactorily meeting requirements for a general education program. Here the greater percentage of our pupils is located and it is in this area where we shall be most severely pressed to provide the breadth of program essential for state approval. Serious consideration must soon be given to this problem.

Reporting on Departments.

The music area has had the usual successful year. Approximately one hundred and fifty pupils have been taking instrumental lessons throughout the year. Vocal music has been conducted in all grade areas. Several of our high school students participated in the annual All-State Music Festival. Our band participated in three joint concerts with other schools. The Spring Concert was well attended.

Home Economics:

As revealed in previous reports, this area has become much more proficient due chiefly to the guidance used in selecting areas of study by pupils. Smaller classes has resulted in greater individual teacher help being given each girl participating. This area may receive some criticism from a physical standpoint by the evaluating group.

Industrial Arts:

This particular area did not progress as efficiently as was hoped for during the school year of 1956-1957. With the start of the present year, considerable improvement has been noted, in fact, more has been accomplished since September of this school year than was accomplished throughout the entire year previous.

Extra Curricula:

Under this heading can be reported an increase of interest in such areas as science and dramatics. Since September the Dramatic Club, comprised of fifty-four pupils, has been most active. The Science Club is active and we hope will take part in nearby science fairs.

The new Industrial Arts Club has resulted in a decided increase of interest in this area. This is a most desirable result and there is every reason to believe more boys will be participating.

The athletic program sustained its usual success. Through the joint efforts of both boys and girls athletics, Hinsdale received a fair share of recognition in sports in this area. The boys basketball team participated in the State Class S Tournament, losing out in the quarterfinals. As a result of increased interest in the academic areas of the high school and the introduction of related extra curricular activities such as described previously, I would advocate the scheduling of interscholastic competitions be kept within the minimum required by the N. H. I. A. A. for recognition for state play. I believe the extended basketball season in particular can be reduced to provide more pupil time being devoted to the academic area. Less consideration is being given by colleges to the athletic factor in the selecting of candidates for admission to institutions of higher learning. I believe the athletic program has a place in the over-all school program, however, never at the expense of the academic area or its related activities. The small school must exert the greater share of its endeavors to the development of its basic academic program. Cost increase is still another factor that must be considered especially in light of the annual increase in officiating fees.

If officiating costs continue to rise, maintaining any form of sports program will necessitate a definite subsidization of this program through the regular budget.

The class of 1957 deeply appreciated the support of the several money-raising activities sponsored by them in preparing for their trip to Washington. Their play was well received and a decided success financially.

Again, our Hinsdale Parent Teachers Association should be commended for the excellent support given the schools. The continued efforts at providing financial aid in scholarship form has been a most encouraging factor.

The Davidson Scholarship, growing as it has from a wise investment of principle, afforded two very excellent financial aids to deserving seniors.

Dr. LaChaine, with the assistance of Miss Grais Churchill, again maintained the very efficient health program our schools enjoy. The providing of polio shots and other inoculations, has been the result of much effort on the part of our school nurse.

Our school buildings have been kept at a high degree of efficiency by the cooperative efforts of our custodians. Their personal interest in our plants has helped to keep maintenance and repair costs to a minimum.

The bus drivers too, have taken a personal interest in the safety and comfort of all pupils transported. We are fortunate to have such fine service and the existing cooperative attitude.

The financial status of the School Activity Fund as of this date, is as follows:

Class of 1958	$1,120 92
Class of 1959	316 58

Class of 1960	198 24
Class of 1961	84 59
Class of 1962	11 55
Class of 1963	00 00
General Fund	453 21
Music Fund	578 25
Athletic Fund	138 47

In closing, may I again express my most sincere appreciation to you, the School Board, and especially those loyal hard-working members of our staff for the support given in promoting the educational program Hinsdale sponsors.

Again, may I extend my personal appreciation to the many fine people of Hinsdale for their interest and support. We are still very happy to have the privilege of working with the young people and their parents of this community.

Respectfully,

ROBERT A. GIRARDIN,
Principal.

Mrs. Lillian L. Williams, Grade 6.

The New Hampshire State Department of Education has issued a bulletin outlining the Minimum Standards and Recommended Practices for New Hampshire Secondary Schools, Grades 9-12, these standards and practices to go into effect in September, 1958. To quote Dr. Austin J. McCaffrey, recently resigned Commissioner of Education, "the publication of this bulletin represents a significant step in the direction of improved secondary school education in New Hampshire. Now, for the first time, citizens and school officials have available a clear and detailed statement of the standards which secondary schools must meet for approval. Equally significant, this bulletin also presents numerous suggestions and recommendations which will help a community move from a minimum school to a desirable school."

The bulletin is particularly pertinent and timely in view of the concern of the American people regarding secondary education in this country. Attention has been focused on Mathematics and the Physical Sciences since the advent of Sputnik. It is to the credit of the New Hampshire State Department of Education that the bulletin was in preparation and completed before we ever heard of Sputnik.

Very shortly, Hinsdale High School will be visited by a team comprised of members of the State Department of Education who will determine how well our local high school meets the minimum standards. The local school is not being singled out since every high school in the state will be so evaluated.

It should be realized by the citizens of Hinsdale that a small high school will be hard pressed to offer the prescribed program of study in accordance with the prescribed standards. To quote from the state bulletin, "This in turn implies that a high school enrolling fewer than 150 pupils in the upper four years will experience great difficulty in providing such a program at a reasonable pre-pupil cost." The enrollment in Hinsdale High School at the opening of schools in September was 136.

A larger high school serving the needs of more than one town, such as the new school in Northfield, Massachusetts, would be desirable for this area. In such a school it would be possible to have strictly college preparatory divisions on a high academic level. The gifted students would have greater opportunities to challenge their abilities. The less gifted students, being more homogeneously grouped, would experience less frustration.

Good teachers are attracted and held by a larger high school because they have better opportunities to exercise their talents, better teaching conditions, and better instructional facilities and equipment.

Hinsdale's problem is not unique. It is widespread throughout the country. A recent publication of the National Education Association, "The Contemporary Challenge to American Education," copyright 1958, states "In high schools, courses of study should be designed to allow the abler students to carry heavier loads in balanced programs which include mathematics, science, and languages, together with English, social studies, and humanities. Also care should be taken to give talented students the opportunity to satisfy their wide intellectual and cultural interests and their specific occupational interests. Courses for these students can be provided in such a way that they are not held back by the less able. This can be done and is being done in comprehensive high schools without prejudice to the democratic school spirit or to the status of students who progress at varying rates of speed and varying depths of scholarship.

“Advanced courses, however, should not be imposed on students who lack the required talent. To do so would deprive the latter of the educational program which will benefit them and consequently the nation. National welfare demands not only the education of the outstandingly able but also the best possible education of all students. America requires trained talents of every type. . . .

“Small, weak school districts must be consolidated into larger, more effective units. There are many such districts. Half of all American high schools have fewer than 175 pupils. In one state, half of all the high schools have under seventy pupils and four or fewer teachers. In such schools the diversified program necessary to meet the varied needs of students is impossible of achievement. High priority should be given to speeding the process of consolidation.”

In conclusion, I wish to express my appreciation to the teachers, pupils and parents, the School Building Committee, the School Board and the patrons of our schools for their cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,

CHESTER C. LEES,

Superintendent of Schools.
